First Symphony Orchestra For College

Cafeteria For Ricks College Gets Approval

The Regional Office of the Federal Works Agency at Seattle has formally approved Ricks College’s application for a new cafeteria building and forwarded the application to Washington, D.C., for final approval. John J. Clarke, president, said today on his return from Seattle.

President Clarke was accompanied by Eldon C. Hart, treasurer of Ricks College.

The application, in addition to including a building containing 45 square feet of floor space, would include equipment and furnishings. If contract for furnishing the building is formally approved, the federal government would furnish the building, erect it, and equip it and Ricks College would furnish the building and bring utility lines to within five feet of the building, said Pres. Clarke.

Dr. Frank Asper to Give Organ Recital Here December 5

One of the finest programs of organ music ever heard in the Upper Snake River Valley will be presented Tuesday, December 5, by Dr. Frank Asper, organist of the Salt Lake Tabernacle, in a recital under the auspices of the Ricks College Community Fine Arts series.

Dr. Asper’s recital will begin at 8 p.m. in the Rexburg Stake Tabernacle, according to Prof. John Anderson, chairman of the music department.

Dr. Asper’s complete program is as follows:

Pachelbel, Canon; V. M. J.; Marcello; chorale; My Heart Is Filled with Longing, Bach; Prelude and Fugue in A Minor, Bach; Musette and Minuet, Handel; Aria, Handel; French Rondo, Boellmann; Chorale in A Minor, Bach; Fantasia; Carillon-Suite, Mulet; Scherzo, Reigers; Tuba Tune, Lang; Toccata in D, Kinder.

Dr. Frank Asper will appear Thursday night in an organ recital, Be there!

GROUP IS THE FIRST OF ITS SIZE FOR COLLEGE AND COMMUNITY. IT WILL ACCOMPANY PART OF THE “MESSIAH.”

Rev. Joseph L. Giluk Speaks to Ricks Students

The young men and women of southern Idaho are a part of a great procession who are destined to play a part in keeping alive the spirit of the Pilgrims at Plymouth, the Rev. Joseph L. Giluk of the Presbyterian Church at Idaho Falls said Tuesday in an address at a Ricks College devotional assembly.

A men’s trio consisting of Ray B. Andrus of Ucon and his sons, Ray B. Andrus, Jr, and Heber J. Andrus, sang “Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life” and “Bells This House.” They were accompanied by Miss Melba Woolf, also of Ucon.

The Rev. Giluk said that the qualities of spirit which have been projected down through the years since the time of the Pilgrims as the qualities which have built America consisted of faith, courage, love of freedom, thirst for new horizons, faith in God and the intent of destiny.

He reviewed the history of the United States, tracing how the hand of destiny has guided the building of a great commonwealth. “We ought to be thankful at this Thanksgiving time for this more than the past. We ought to remember that God still needs men and women to be his pan in social development,” asserted the Rev. Giluk.

Affirming his faith that the long-range purposes of God in regard to this nation cannot be defeated, he urged his listeners to remember that they were a part of the great procession which is to continue the march into the future started by the Pilgrims. “It is to be a good Thanksgiving and a renewal of the Pilgrim faith,” he added.

Buy from our ADVERTISERS and tell them you saw their ad in the “Viking Scroll.”

Students Show Interest In Spanish Class at Ricks

“The Spanish class has made much progress,” Spanish Instructor, Lucius Clark states; and he laughed when he said that the students had even learned several kindergarten songs in Spanish.

“The class has twenty students enrolled including several who work in town, and a teacher from Hyrum. The Spanish students plan to give a Mexican party at which they will serve tortillas and chili con carne, and play Spanish music.”

Mr. Clark also stated that they have gone as far as they are supposed to in their texts, and that most students are interested and put considerable study into the class.

“Anyone interested in starting in the winter quarter who has had some previous Spanish is eligible to enroll.”

The class expects to learn a few Christmas songs before Christmas; so if you hear a guitar strumming and something that sounds “like a busy henhouse on a summer day,” it is just the Spanish class out Christmas caroling.

The young men and women of southern Idaho are a part of a great procession who are destined to play a part in keeping alive the spirit of the Pilgrims at Plymouth, the Rev. Joseph L. Giluk of the Presbyterian Church at Idaho Falls said Tuesday in an address at a Ricks College devotional assembly.

A men’s trio consisting of Ray B. Andrus of Ucon and his sons, Ray B. Andrus, Jr, and Heber J. Andrus, sang “Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life” and “Bells This House.” They were accompanied by Miss Melba Woolf, also of Ucon.

The Rev. Giluk said that the qualities of spirit which have been projected down through the years since the time of the Pilgrims as the qualities which have built America consisted of faith, courage, love of freedom, thirst for new horizons, faith in God and the intent of destiny.

He reviewed the history of the United States, tracing how the hand of destiny has guided the building of a great commonwealth. “We ought to be thankful at this Thanksgiving time for this more than the past. We ought to remember that God still needs men and women to be his pan in social development,” asserted the Rev. Giluk.

Affirming his faith that the long-range purposes of God in regard to this nation cannot be defeated, he urged his listeners to remember that they were a part of the great procession which is to continue the march into the future started by the Pilgrims. “It is to be a good Thanksgiving and a renewal of the Pilgrim faith,” he added.

Buy from our ADVERTISERS and tell them you saw their ad in the “Viking Scroll.”

Students Show Interest In Spanish Class at Ricks

“The Spanish class has made much progress,” Spanish Instructor, Lucius Clark states; and he laughed when he said that the students had even learned several kindergarten songs in Spanish.

“The class has twenty students enrolled including several who work in town, and a teacher from Hyrum. The Spanish students plan to give a Mexican party at which they will serve tortillas and chili con carne, and play Spanish music.”

Mr. Clark also stated that they have gone as far as they are supposed to in their texts, and that most students are interested and put considerable study into the class.

“Anyone interested in starting in the winter quarter who has had some previous Spanish is eligible to enroll.”

The class expects to learn a few Christmas songs before Christmas; so if you hear a guitar strumming and something that sounds “like a busy henhouse on a summer day”, it is just the Spanish class out Christmas caroling.