REVISE CONSTITUTION IS RELEASED

After many hours of work by the Constitutional Committee, a new constitution has taken effect. The complete text is printed on page 2 and I urge every student to read it closely.

Next Wednesday, a special election will be held to approve or disapprove this new proposed Constitution. It is of prime importance that each student vote on this proposal as it is only through the voice of the majority of the student body that our real work can be accomplished. Adjustments of the text can easily be made through amendments as found necessary. If you, if you approve of the general theme and outline of this new Constitution, I urge you to vote YES next Wednesday. Do not delay good thing because of minor details, it may be too late.

This Constitution, set up to replace the old Constitution is recommended to you by the Constitutional Committee, and has the approval of the Student Council and the Administration of our College.
