Ricks Announces Faculty For Summer School

Registration For First Term
To Start June 6

Plans are progressing and faculty members have been chosen for the annual Ricks college summer school, which was announced Thursday by Eldred C. Stephenson, registrar.

Registration for first term of the session will begin June 6 and classes will be held June 7. Special holiday will be held July 4 and the first term will end July 15.

Second term will begin July 15 and end July 18, he continued.

Ricks Extends Scholarships To Fifty Students

Approximately fifty scholarships are being offered by Ricks College to eligible 1949 high school graduates, John L. Clarke, president, said today.

A $50 scholarship is being offered to one graduate of every I. D. S. seminary in Idaho and also a $50 scholarship is being offered to one graduate from high schools in eastern Idaho where there are no seminaries, Pres. Clarke said, adding that the principle of the high school would choose the scholarship award.

High school students in this area may apply for these scholarships as well as others if they can meet the qualifications, Pres. Clarke continued.

Other scholarships being offered are: four $100 educational scholarships to students who are preparing to teach school. The scholarships will be given to two boys and two girls.

Six $100 scholarships by the Utah-Mobile Sugar Co. to boys interested in Agriculture; and forty-five $50 music scholarships are being offered, Pres. Clarke said.

Ricks Chis to Show All-Girl Drama

Chi chapter of Lambda Delta Sigma will present the act all-girl play "Schubert Alley" at the college auditorium in the evening Thursday, March 24, in the Madison high school auditorium. The play is a touching story of a young actress's rise to fame.

Members of the cast are: Christina Holt, Joyce Price, Bette Anna Helfer, Helen Morgan, Barbara Nielson, Nancy Ann Gal- veston, Vivian Tew, Florence Bager, Barbara Rich, Hattie Will- liams, Leon Pathfinder, Lura Bennett, Marilyn Christie, Mildred, Fay Smith; Patricia All- ego, Betty Love, Lurline Moore, Beatrice Rydland; Miss Schuman, Carol Hill Nellie, Sherr- ley Young; Rita Wagar, Laetitia Weatherston; Poppy Nixon, Dorothy Helsham.

Leah McLane, speech teacher at Sugar-Salem high school, is the director. Mr. King also directed the play "Fring Girls" which was presented by the Chi chapter last year.

Reserve tickets will be sold at sixty cents at the Ricks college.

(Continued on Page 2)

Token Display Received From French Mercy Train

A token display of the French Mercy Train has been presented to Ricks College on behalf of the state of Idaho and the American Legion Committee. It was announced Monday by John L. Clarke, president.

The display includes several books, oil paintings, trays and other tokens of France's friendship, Pres. Clarke said.

Each of the educational institutions of the state are receiving a token display symbolic of the train, Pres. Clarke said, adding that they are coming from the surplus of the principal display that will likely be housed in a museum at Boise.

Each piece that has been received will be recognized by way of a letter of acceptance to the French donor and a letter of thank you to the state of Idaho will be made, Pres. Clarke said.

Ricks to Exchange Program with I.S.C.

Idaho State college choir has accepted an invitation extended by Ricks college music department to present a musical program to the student body on March 29, according to A. L. Dittmer.

The Ricks college A Capella choir will exchange programs at date to be announced later, Mr. Dittmer said. Dittmer said that the programs were a part of a music intercollegiate activity.

The Ricks College choir is now making plans and is the story for their tour through southeastern Idaho for the Salt Lake trip in April are nearing completion, Mr. Dittmer said.

Approximately sixty voices have been selected from the auditions held for townpeople to join the choir which will sing at the annual April conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter- day Saints, Mr. Dittmer said, adding that between 160 and 180 people will participate.

Professors Eldred C. Stephenson and Claude J. Beretschaw have been appointed co-chairmen of the transportation which will take the choir to Salt Lake, Mr. Dittmer concluded.

Constitution Published For Consideration

Provides For Extra Officers, Revised Budget

By Bill O'Donnell

The Student Council has completed its consideration of the proposed constitution prepared by the Constitutional Committee, it was announced Saturday by Louis Melendez, vice-president, and president.

The complete constitution is printed in this issue of the Viking Scroll. It will be voted upon Friday, said Mr. Melendez, adding that the room in which voting will take place will be announced later.

The proposed constitution was prepared by Norman Hicks, Bill O'Donnell, Kenneth Griffiths and Dee Armstrong, and revised a little by the Student Council. According to Mr. O'Donnell, it was modeled after the Constitution of the Brigham Young University student body.

Take Effect Next Fall

If accepted by the Ricks College student body, said Mr. Melendez, the proposed amendment or revision must be filed with the school administration and be published in the Viking Scroll not later than one week prior to a regular or special election. During the week before election at least ten complete copies of the proposed amendment or revision shall be placed on reserve in the library. If the amendment is passed, the notice announcing this action shall be posted on the official bulletin board. This procedure will be followed, said Mr. Melendez.

The re-writing of the constitution was necessitated by the four-year academic plan recently initiated at the college, and has been in process for a number of months said Mr. Ricks.

Lady Missionary Reunion Scheduled

Annual reunion of the Eastern States Lady Missionaries will be held April 6, at 3:30 p.m. at the Seabury room at Hotel Temple Square.

Volume 61
No. 16
Rexburg, Idaho
Tuesday, March 22, 1949

I.K.'s Hold Feast In Hotel Rogers

Interloquating Knights held their banquet Saturday evening in the Hotel Rogers blue room in Idaho Falls.

Guests of the club were Jay Olson, regional vice-president; President John L. Clarke; Professor Herbert Frost, faculty advisor and Don Ricks, a former member, who is now attending the A. C.

George Lyman was master of ceremonies and a very enjoyable program was presented. The place cards and centerpieces of gardens were arranged by Phyll Han- sen. Roy McBride was chairman of the banquet.

Approximately 50 persons were in attendance including club members, parents and guests. The menu consisted of cocktail, tur- key with baked potatoes, peas, salad, cranberry sauce, hot rolls and creamed chickens.

Following the banquet the club was invited to a dance at Idaho Falls by the tri-state dance committee of Idaho Falls Stake.

Eldred C. Stephenson, registrar, will head summer school staff.

Primary purpose of the summer season is for teachers to fill requirements for graduation and certification. Other students will be able to fill up group requirements for the school year, Mr. Stephenson explained.

Faculty members will include: E. E. Sjogel, elementary and second- ary education, both terms; Robert S. C. McCarver, social science, both terms; R. J. Morse, history, literature, and religion, second term.

Edna Hicks, English, literature, first term; Virginia Perkins, guidance, arts and crafts, home economics, first term; Irma Lake, physical education, recreation, literature, second term; A. A. Pleger, German, both terms.

Thorson Atkinson, library science, both terms; Dr. M. D. Mor- riell, government, first term; W. C. Kaufman, drama workshop, both terms; Eldred C. Stephenson, business, both terms; John M. Anderson, music, both terms; Her- bert H. Frost, biological science, both terms; Richard R. Coburn, physical science and mathematics, both terms.

LADY MISSIONARY REUNION SCHEDULED

Annual reunion of the Eastern States Lady Missionaries will be held April 6, at 3:30 p.m. at the Seabury room at Hotel Temple Square.