

Dear Betsy

A little Bird has whispered in my ear that there are feet in Philadelphia that require to be cared for this inclement season, in consequence of this information Aunt Schuyler has knit a few pair of Socks. to be disposed of as you please.

We are extremely anxious to hear how the Climate of Cuba answers for Dear Eliska. I trust your Father's Mother presumes some one of this family ones with him, most sincerely do I hope he may return convalescent

Please ask Cousin Tom how the Revolutionary Claims are progressing, any thing to hope from our new President, very visionary you will exclaim with very much love to all my Dear relatives

Your Aunt
