

Commission
as Commissioner under the Convention with France.
14 July 1832.

Andrew Jackson, President of the United States of America

To all who shall see these presents, Greeting:

Know ye, That reposing special trust and confidence in the integrity and abilities of John H. Kane of Pennsylvania I have nominated, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate do appoint him Commissioner under the law to carry into effect the Convention between the United States and his Majesty the King of the French, concluded on the fourth of July 1831, and do authorize and empower him to execute and fulfil the duties appertaining to this Commission, according to the true intent and meaning thereof, and to Have and to Hold the said Office, with all the powers, privileges and emoluments thereto of right belonging unto him the said John H. Kane.

In Testimony whereof I have caused these Letters to be made patent, and the Seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand at the City of Washington the fourteenth day of July A.D. 1832, and of the Independence of the United States of America the fifty seventh.

Andrew Jackson

By the President

Edwin Livingston Secretary of State.
