

Elie, August 18th 1858

Please believe that I love you all telling, till you hear from me the contrary. — I for my part never doubted your love to me, and never would doubt it, even if I "heard from you to the contrary." — God bless you both. I don't feel too good & self-sacrificing — and "ripen for heaven" before I am quite well. Anna Ward keeps Harry constantly informed state of welfare — & "inquiring friends" will please apply to

I have my part now done the contrary - I have my lot. It will be as it is, and never would doubt it, even if I heard from you to the contrary - You know how often I hear "repaid".
I am quite well. Anne had her story constantly informed by the fact - I will not say every letter to every one like you can quite well. Anne had her story constantly informed
